Introduction

Three Towers (TTAPA) is the data controller for information that it uses and that is used by the Trust:

To run the academies/schools and help learning and achievement, the school collects and uses information about learners.

In this document TTAPA is referred to as 'We' or 'Ours'. Learners are referred to as 'You' or 'Your'.

Much of the information we collect is classed as 'personal data' and our use of it is covered by a set of rules called the General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018.

This document tells you more about:

- The information we collect;
- What we use the information for;
- How your information is stored and how long we keep it;
- What rights you have to the information.

What Information do we collect and use about staff?

We collect many different categories of information, for example:

- Personal details;
- Contact details;
- Banking details;
- Taxation details;
- Pension details;
- Car insurance and MOT details;
- Job application details;
- Selection & interview records;
- References received;
- Identity verification records;
- Performance assessment details;
- Information for improving performance;
- Annual leave records;
- Records of communications;
- Photographs of you or images on CCTV;
- Information to identify you in school;
- Records of transactions;
- Information about the use of school IT systems;
- Information about consultation with other professionals;
- Family details – your emergency contacts/next of kin.

We also are required to collect and use information that is given additional protection under the

GDPR – special category data, for example:

- Demographic information required for monitoring equal opportunities
- Information about health conditions, medical appointments and sickness related absences
- Information about criminal convictions (for example, where this is necessary for carrying out Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checks or compliance with our other legal and regulatory obligations);

However, this will only be undertaken where and to the extent it is necessary for a lawful purpose in connection with your employment or other engagement to work for the School.

While the majority of information we collect is mandatory, there is some information that can be provided voluntarily. Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether providing it is mandatory or optional.

In addition:

- TTAPA also uses CCTV cameras around the school site for security purposes and for the protection of staff, learners and visitors. CCTV footage may be referred to during the course of disciplinary procedures (for staff or learners) or to investigate other issues.
- ~~➤ The school records external telephone calls for training and monitoring purposes. Personal data referred to within such a call recording may be transcribed and/or referred to when supporting student learning, when supporting students' health/welfare (including their vital interests) or when resolving other issues.~~

Why we collect and use this information.

We use the information:

- To enable you to work for us;
- To support you in your job role; ~~teaching and learning;~~
- To maintain a safe environment for our learners;
- To provide appropriate pastoral care for our learners;
- To enable to you take part in appropriate training and professional development;
- To help you to deliver the best support of our learners and your colleagues;
- To enable you to pay for activities for your child(ren)
- To comply with our legal obligations to share information;
- To ensure your health and safety;
- To keep you up to date with news about the school.

The legal basis for using this information

Depending on the purpose, our use of your information will be legal due to one of the following:

- Informed consent given by you [Article 6(1)(a)]
For example: The use of banking information in our payment service

For example: Providing details of any medical/health conditions you have in the event of an emergency
- For substantial public service [Article 9(2)(g)]
For example: Using information about your health to ensure a safe working environment

Collecting this information

We collect information via:

- Data provided by you on your application form;
- Data provided by the Department for Education (teacher registration and Section 128);
- Data provided by the DBS Service and Teaching Regulation Agency;
- Data provided through references prior to employment;
- Social media checks (in line with KCSIE 2023 guidance)
- Medical forms completed at the start of employment

While the majority of information we collect is mandatory, there is some information that can be provided voluntarily. Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether providing it is mandatory or optional.

If it is mandatory, we will explain the possible consequences of not complying.

Storing your personal data

Some of the personal data that we collect and use is added to your personnel file. Other data, depending on its purpose, will be kept in other systems or in manual files. We use email to enable authorised users to transfer information to one another.

Some personal data is kept for different lengths of time. For example.

- your personnel file is for 6 years after the date you leave employment;
- annual appraisals are kept for the current year and then for 5 years;

- records of any accident you have at work are kept for 12 years after the incident.

If you would like to know how long we keep a specific piece of personal data, please contact the Data Protection Officer whose details can be found at the end of this Privacy Notice.

Sharing your personal data

At times we will share your personal data with other organisations and people. We will only do this when we are legally required to do so, when our policies allow us to do so or when you have given your consent. Examples of people we share personal data with are:

- Family, associates and representatives of the person whose personal data we are processing who are authorised to receive the data;
- The relevant local authority;
- HMRC;
- The Department for Education;
- Healthcare, social and welfare organisations;
- Police forces and Courts;
- Voluntary and charitable organisations;
- Our suppliers and service providers.

Where we share your personal data with someone who is a supplier or service provider, we have taken steps to ensure that they treat your personal data in a way that meets the requirements of the GDPR.

Transferring data internationally

Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with data protection law.

How long we keep your personal information

We only keep your information for as long as we need it or for as long as we are required by law to keep it. Full details are given in our Data Retention Policy which can be found on the Trust's website.

Your rights to your personal data

You have rights relating to the personal data that we collect and use. Depending on the legal basis we are using the information you have different rights. If we are using your personal data based on your consent, you can withdraw that consent and we will stop using that personal data. Withdrawing your consent will need to be recorded in writing, please contact the Data Protection Officer.

The right to be informed:

If you ask us, we must tell you if we are collecting or using your personal data. If we are collecting or using your personal data, you have:

The right of access to your personal data

You have the right to view the personal data that we hold about you, to receive a copy of the data and to be given more information about the data including any transfer to countries who do not fall under the requirements of the GDPR.

Some information we hold cannot be accessed in this way. If you ask for information that is not available, there may be other ways of accessing it and we can help you.

To have access to your personal data we will need to collect details of what you want and in the first instance you can contact the Data Protection Officer whose details can be found at the end of this Privacy Notice. You will also need to supply us with standard information to verify your identity.

Other rights

You also have rights to ask us to correct inaccurate personal data, to ask us to stop using it or to object to us using it. For some data you may have the right to ask us to erase it, to provide it in an electronic format that you can give to someone else. For some personal data if we are subjecting it to automated decision making then you have the right to object to this and request that a person is involved.

You will be given full details of these rights if you request access to your personal data or you can ask the Data Protection Officer.

Who to contact:

The School has the responsibility to ensure that your personal data is protected. It is called the data controller. All members of staff work for the data controller.
