Holidays during Term Time

In line with DfE national guidance, the school will not normally agree to your child missing school for family holidays except in exceptional circumstances, for example if your child has moved to Three Towers during the academic year and the holiday booking would have been during their original school's normal holidays provided that we see confirmation that the booking was made before they referred to Three Towers. We will need to see confirmation that the booking was made before they were referred to Three Towers.

Dual-registered Learners

If your child is dual registered with Three Towers and another school, we will discuss holiday patterns with you when your child starts with us.

Holidays during SATs / Exam Season

Holidays during exams seasons will not be authorised. The dates for SATs, GCSE and other externally accredited courses are set nationally and Three Towers cannot move the dates so if your child is absent then they will miss the exam.
