

Three Towers Reading List and websites for free books

Primary Phase

www.twinkl.co.uk/home-learning-hub

This gives you access to a wide range of resources for all subjects for all year groups. On the main screen click 'live phonics sessions' for a daily lesson. There are also live story times and videos of teachers reading stories on this page. Also, if you click on the tab 'home learning' you can select 'reading comprehension' which gives you access to lots of reading materials and activities for learners. There are extracts and information packs for learners to read and then answer questions on it.

<https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/for-home/find-a-book/library-page/>

This website allows you to choose online ebooks at your child's own level.

www.pobble365.com

The activities on this site are more suitable for Key Stage 2 learners. The site has a daily picture, a story or passage to go with it and questions and challenges to answer. Just type in the website and it is on the main page. To access previous day's stories, click on the tab 'pick a day' at the top.

<https://www.worldofdavidwalliams.com>

Best for Reading for Pleasure, this website allows you to listen, read and watch extracts and behind-the-scenes information from the books of David Walliams. If you click on the tab 'elevenes' it takes you to a live reading each day at 11 'o' clock.

www.topmarks.co.uk

A site for online activities for all subjects. To access reading activities in the 'subject box' select 'English' and then you can find things for your child's age. It has a range of reading comprehension tasks.

www.phonicsplay.co.uk

This website has a range of online games and resources to support reading and phonics learning. Usually a subscription site, they are currently offering free access to parents with the user name: march20 and the password: home
