

Three Towers

An Alternative Provision Academy

Expanding Horizons

Relationships, Sex & Health Education (RSE) Policy

Adopted: June 2020

Review: as required by statutory guidance

1. Introduction

Three Towers works with a wide variety of learners from Key Stage 1 to Key Stage 4. Most of our primary lagged learners are dual-registered with their main school and we work closely with them on planning appropriate relationships education through our PSHE programme. The vast majority of our secondary age learners are single registered and have had disrupted educational histories so we try to match the individual needs of the learner to the curriculum offered.

2. Aims

The aims of relationships and sex education (RSE) at our school are to:

- provide a framework in which sensitive discussions can take place
- prepare pupils for puberty, and give them an understanding of sexual development and the importance of health and hygiene;
- help pupils develop feelings of self-respect, confidence and empathy;
- create a positive culture around issues of sexuality and relationships;
- teach pupils the correct vocabulary to describe themselves and their bodies.

TTAPA endeavours to help our learners to understand and respect themselves and others as they move from childhood, through adolescents and on into adulthood. This approach is delivered alongside that in our mainstream partner schools for our dual-registered learners.

3. Statutory Requirements

For our primary aged learners, we must provide relationships education to all pupils as per section 34 of the Children and Social work act 2017.

For our secondary aged learners, we must provide relationships & sex education (RSE) to all pupils as per section 34 of the Children and Social work act 2017.

We do not have to follow the National Curriculum but we are expected to offer all pupils a curriculum that is similar to the National Curriculum including requirements to teach science which would include the elements of sex education contained in the science curriculum.

In teaching RSE, we are required by our funding agreements to have regard to guidance issued by the secretary of state as outlined in section 403 of the Education Act 1996.

Statutory guidance can be found by accessing the following website:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/relationships-education-relationships-and-sex-education-rse-and-health-education>

4. Policy Development

This policy has been developed in consultation with staff, parents, learners and governors.

5. Definition

RSE is about the physical, emotional, moral, social and cultural development of children and young people. It is about understanding the importance of stable relationships (including family relationships), respect, love and care. It involves learning about relationships, sexual health, sexuality, healthy lifestyles, diversity and personal identity.

RSE involves a combination of sharing information, and exploring issues and values.

RSE is not about the promotion of sexual activity or orientation – this would be inappropriate teaching.

6. Curriculum

Our curriculum is set out as per Appendices 1 and 2. We will adapt it as necessary to meet the individual needs of the learners.

We have developed the curriculum in consultation with parents, learners and staff, taking into account the age, needs and feelings of learners. If learners ask questions outside the scope of this policy, teachers will respond in an appropriate manner so they are fully informed and don't seek answers online.

7. Delivery of RSE

RSE is taught within the personal, social, health and economic (PSHE) education curriculum. Biological aspects of RSE are taught within the science curriculum, and other aspects are interwoven in the curriculum.

Learners also receive stand-alone sex education sessions delivered by a trained health professional.

7.1 Primary

Relationships education focuses on teaching the fundamental building blocks and characteristics of positive relationships including:

- families and people who care for me;
- caring friendships;
- respectful relationships;
- online relationships;
- being safe

For Year 6 learners our primary sex education will focus on:

- preparing boys and girls for the changes that adolescence brings.

7.2 Secondary

RSE focuses on giving young people the information they need to help them develop healthy, nurturing relationships of all kinds including:

- families;
- respectful relationships, including friendships;
- online and media;
- being safe;

- intimate and sexual relationships, including sexual health.

7.3 All learners

These areas of learning are taught within the context of family life taking care to ensure that there is no stigmatisation of children based on their home circumstances (families can include single parent families, LGBT parents, families headed by grandparents, adoptive parents, foster parents/carers amongst other structures) along with reflecting sensitively that some children may have a different structure of support around them (for example: looked after children or young carers).

8. Roles & Responsibilities

8.1 The Governors

The governing board will approve the RSE policy, and hold the headteacher to account for its implementation.

8.2 The Headteacher

The headteacher is responsible for ensuring that RSE is taught consistently across the school, and for managing requests to withdraw learners from non-statutory/non-science components of RSE (see section 9).

8.3 Staff

Staff are responsible for:

- delivering RSE in a sensitive way;
- modelling positive attitudes to RSE;
- monitoring progress;
- responding to the needs of individual pupils;
- responding appropriately to pupils whose parents wish them to be withdrawn from the non-statutory/non-science components of RSE.

Staff do not have the right to opt out of teaching RSE. Staff who have concerns about teaching RSE are encouraged to discuss this with the headteacher.

Staff responsible for teaching RSE are:

Primary staff: L Carroll-Hall

Secondary staff: E Arkwright, R Gibson, A King, C Seggie

8.4 Learners

Learners are expected to engage fully in RSE and, when discussing issues related to RSE, treat others with respect and sensitivity.

9. Parents' right to withdraw

9.1 Primary

Parents do not have the right to withdraw their children from relationships education.

Parents do have the right to withdraw their children from the non-statutory/non-science components of sex education within RSE.

Requests for withdrawal should be put in writing using the form found in Appendix 3 of this policy and addressed to the headteacher.

Alternative work will be given to learners who are withdrawn from sex education.

9.2 Secondary

Parents do have the right to withdraw their children from the non-statutory/non-science components of sex education within RSE up to and until 3 terms before the child turns 16. After this point, if the child wishes to receive sex education rather than being withdrawn, the school will arrange this.

Requests for withdrawal should be put in writing using the form found in Appendix 3 of this policy and addressed to the headteacher.

A copy of withdrawal requests will be placed in the learner's educational record. The headteacher will discuss the request with parents and take appropriate action.

Alternative work will be given to learners who are withdrawn from sex education.

10. Safeguarding & Confidentiality

We provide a safe and supportive community where learners feel comfortable seeking help and guidance on anything that may be concerning them about their life either at school or at home. Training around confidentiality is provided to all staff.

If may be that a discussion around what is acceptable and not acceptable in relationships may lead to the disclosure of a child protection issue. If this is the case, the child protection and safeguarding procedures will be followed.

If a member of staff is approached by a learner under 16 who is having, or is contemplating having sexual intercourse the member of staff should:

- ensure that the learner is accessing the contraceptive and sexual health advice available and understands the risks of being sexually active;
- encourage the learner to talk to their parents/carers. Learners may feel that they are more comfortable bringing these issues to a member of staff they trust, but it is important that children and their parents/carers have open and trusting relationships when it comes to sexual health and TTAPA will encourage this openness as much as possible;
- decide whether there is a child protection issue. This may be the case if the member of staff is concerned that there is coercion or abuse involved.

If the member of staff is informed that a learner under 13 is having or contemplating having sexual intercourse, this will be dealt with under child protection procedures.

Learners with special educational needs and/or disabilities may be more vulnerable to exploitation and less able to protect themselves from harmful influences. If staff are concerned that this is the case, they should seek the support of the Designated Safeguarding Lead and SENDCo to decide what is in the best interest of the learner.

11. Additional Support

Staff, learners and families can refer to the Brook guide to sexual health and well-being which gives an overview of safe and healthy sexual development by clicking this link.

https://legacy.brook.org.uk/brook_tools/traffic/Brook_Traffic_Light_Tool.pdf

12. Continuous Professional Development (CPD)

Staff are trained on the delivery of RSE as part of their induction and it is included in our continuing professional development calendar.

The headteacher and/or subject leads for science and PSHE will also invite visitors from outside the school, such as school nurses or sexual health professionals, to provide support and training to staff teaching RSE

13. Monitoring

The delivery of RSE is monitored by CLT through:

- planning scrutiny;
- work scrutiny;
- learning walks;
- lesson observation.

Learners' development in RSE is monitored by class teachers as part of our internal assessment systems.

This policy will be reviewed by the Headteacher in line with statutory guidance and amended as guidance develops. At every review, the policy will be approved by governors.

Appendix 1: By the end of primary school learners should know

TOPIC	PUPILS SHOULD KNOW
Families and people who care about me	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • That families are important for children growing up because they can give love, security and stability • The characteristics of healthy family life, commitment to each other, including in times of difficulty, protection and care for children and other family members, the importance of spending time together and sharing each other's lives • That others' families, either in school or in the wider world, sometimes look different from their family, but that they should respect those differences and know that other children's families are also characterised by love and care • That stable, caring relationships, which may be of different types, are at the heart of happy families, and are important for children's security as they grow up • That marriage represents a formal and legally recognised commitment of two people to each other which is intended to be lifelong • How to recognise if family relationships are making them feel unhappy or unsafe, and how to seek help or advice from others if needed
Caring friendships	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How important friendships are in making us feel happy and secure, and how people choose and make friends • The characteristics of friendships, including mutual respect, truthfulness, trustworthiness, loyalty, kindness, generosity, trust, sharing interests and experiences and support with problems and difficulties • That healthy friendships are positive and welcoming towards others, and do not make others feel lonely or excluded • That most friendships have ups and downs, and that these can often be worked through so that the friendship is repaired or even strengthened, and that resorting to violence is never right • How to recognise who to trust and who not to trust, how to judge when a friendship is making them feel unhappy or uncomfortable, managing conflict, how to manage these situations and how to seek help or advice from others, if needed
